Step#18

Test the receiver's performance.

Take the vehicle outside, to an area with open access to the sky. Turn the radio on, and tune the radio to the "SAT" band. Navigate the stations with the right channel knob. You should be able to access the satellite radio provider's preview channels to complete the test. If you are unable to receive any preview channels, check your connections, make sure the vehicle has an open view of the sky, and refer to your service troubleshooting guide on AESIS.
